

Presleys' Country Jubilee
“Branson’s First Family of Entertainment”

Long before Hwy 76 became America’s lighted boulevard of family entertainment. Long before Branson became what 60 Minutes called “the live country music capital of the universe.” Long before any of that, the Presley Family built Branson’s Original Show on the Strip. Presleys’ Country Jubilee was a smash hit. People from across the country lined up every night for a chance to hear the country music and comedy the Presley family loved to perform.

Pretty soon, other theaters started popping up around the Presleys. The years passed and Hwy 76 became a glittering mecca of music stars. And smack dab in the middle of it all, from the very start, were the Presleys.

Today over 40 years later, at the center of it all, and still singin’ and making people laugh, Branson’s first family of entertainment remains. The Presleys! Four generations doing what they do best-delighting millions of families with an unforgettable show the Los Angeles Times quoted as a “Stomp your feet mix of music and comedy.”

From new country favorites to country classics – from the zany antics of Herkimer and Cecil to the soulful reflection of southern gospel hits – it’s the one Branson show Regis Philbin says “You’ve got to see.”

Visit a Branson landmark! Presleys’ Theater was the original music theater built in Branson and for that reason it is truly a Branson landmark. In Presleys’ lobby you’ll find many pictures and items of memorabilia from this legendary family showcasing Branson’s musical heritage.

The Presleys’ invite you to come on in, have a seat and lose yourself in an evening of great music and hilarious comedy. The kind of timeless American Entertainment you can share with the whole family!
